To whom it may concern:

Javier Molina has been employed as a Graphic/Web Designer & Video Editor at BOTB since December 2014, working for both the Marketing and IT teams.

Javier designs online content and creative for the BOTB website and marketing campaigns across owned and paid-for channels, as well as print adverts for magazines and collateral for events and POS kiosks. He also films and edits videos for our YouTube channel and POS display screens.

Javier is well organized and adopts an uncompromised ethic defending high-quality standards, best practice and brand guidelines. He's capable of multi-tasking, working independently and to a brief, prioritizing urgent tasks and meeting tight deadlines.

Besides his creative work he also provides technical and artistic advice on UX, UI, Design, Video and Photography.

I highly recommend Javier Molina as a candidate for a position within your company.

Please let me know if you have any further questions.

Regards,

Ben Hughes
